

Thanks to Air Canada... our two French hunters Etienne Harment and Alain Lavigne arrived two days late and thanks to their relaxed, happy natures they went on to splendid hunts with guides Byron v. H. and Chase. Alain's old monster moose scored in at 57 inches.

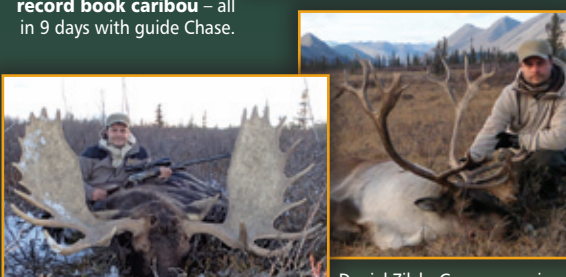

Rizek Masri, Spain, had one of the efficient, good weather, all around working mixed bag hunts with an old moose on day one and a wolf while sheep hunting; he put in some sweat equity for the ram and finished with a record book caribou - all in 9 days with guide Chase.

Seven times SNO repeat hunter Jan Boenicke, Germany, has converted from world record moose to ancient 13-year old sheep in the snow with rubber boot guide and Outfitter Werner Aschbacher.

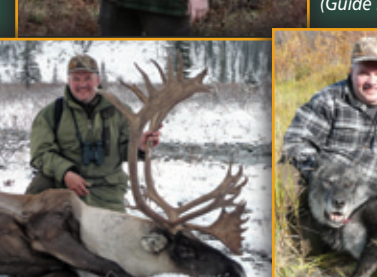

Repeat hunter Rolf Zimmermann is the only person in SNO history to have hunted 27 days for his moose. This includes a hunt two years back. While at it this year, he also took a large caribou and a wolf. (Guide Hart)

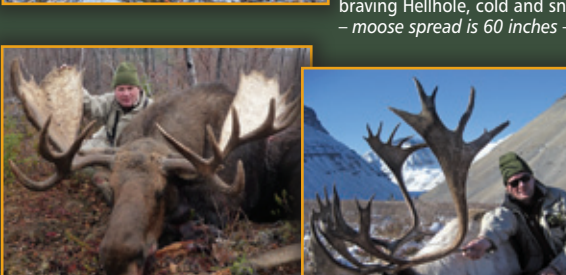

Daniel Zilch, Germany, enjoyed every second of his moose and caribou adventure with guide Stacey, braving Hellhole, cold and snow. - moose spread is 60 inches -

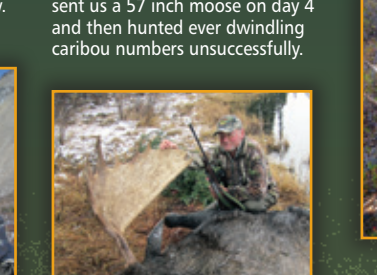

Ingo Gramm, Germany, and guide Harald disappeared from base camp, sent us a 57 inch moose on day 4 and then hunted ever dwindling caribou numbers unsuccessfully.

A 61-incher on day one and a large caribou right beside Jürgen's on day three for Ulrich Hettich, Germany, with guides Byron G. and Kent R.

Jürgen Steinemann, Germany, does one-day moose hunts for cupped in 58-inchers with large caribou on day 3 and back in the office on Monday morning. (Guide Kent Robertson)

Repeat hunter Wolfram Volkholz, Germany, had been to several unsuccessful moose hunts before joining the South Nahanni club last season. Now he is adding once again to his growing row of large antlers. - 59 inches this time - (Guide Byron G.)

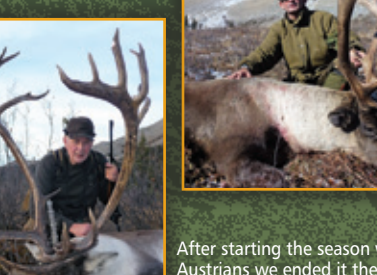

After starting the season with Austrians we ended it the same way with Albert Kirchbauer and caribou hunter Gottlieb Gattinger and his big boo.

Several repeats hunter Rüdiger Claas, Germany, was smoking cigars by day four with another large SNO moose - 57 inches - (Guide Byron v.H.)

Inventory Jan Boenicke and Outfitter Werner Aschbacher

Coming to the call

Back to base camp after the successful hunt - sheep hunter Michael Bey

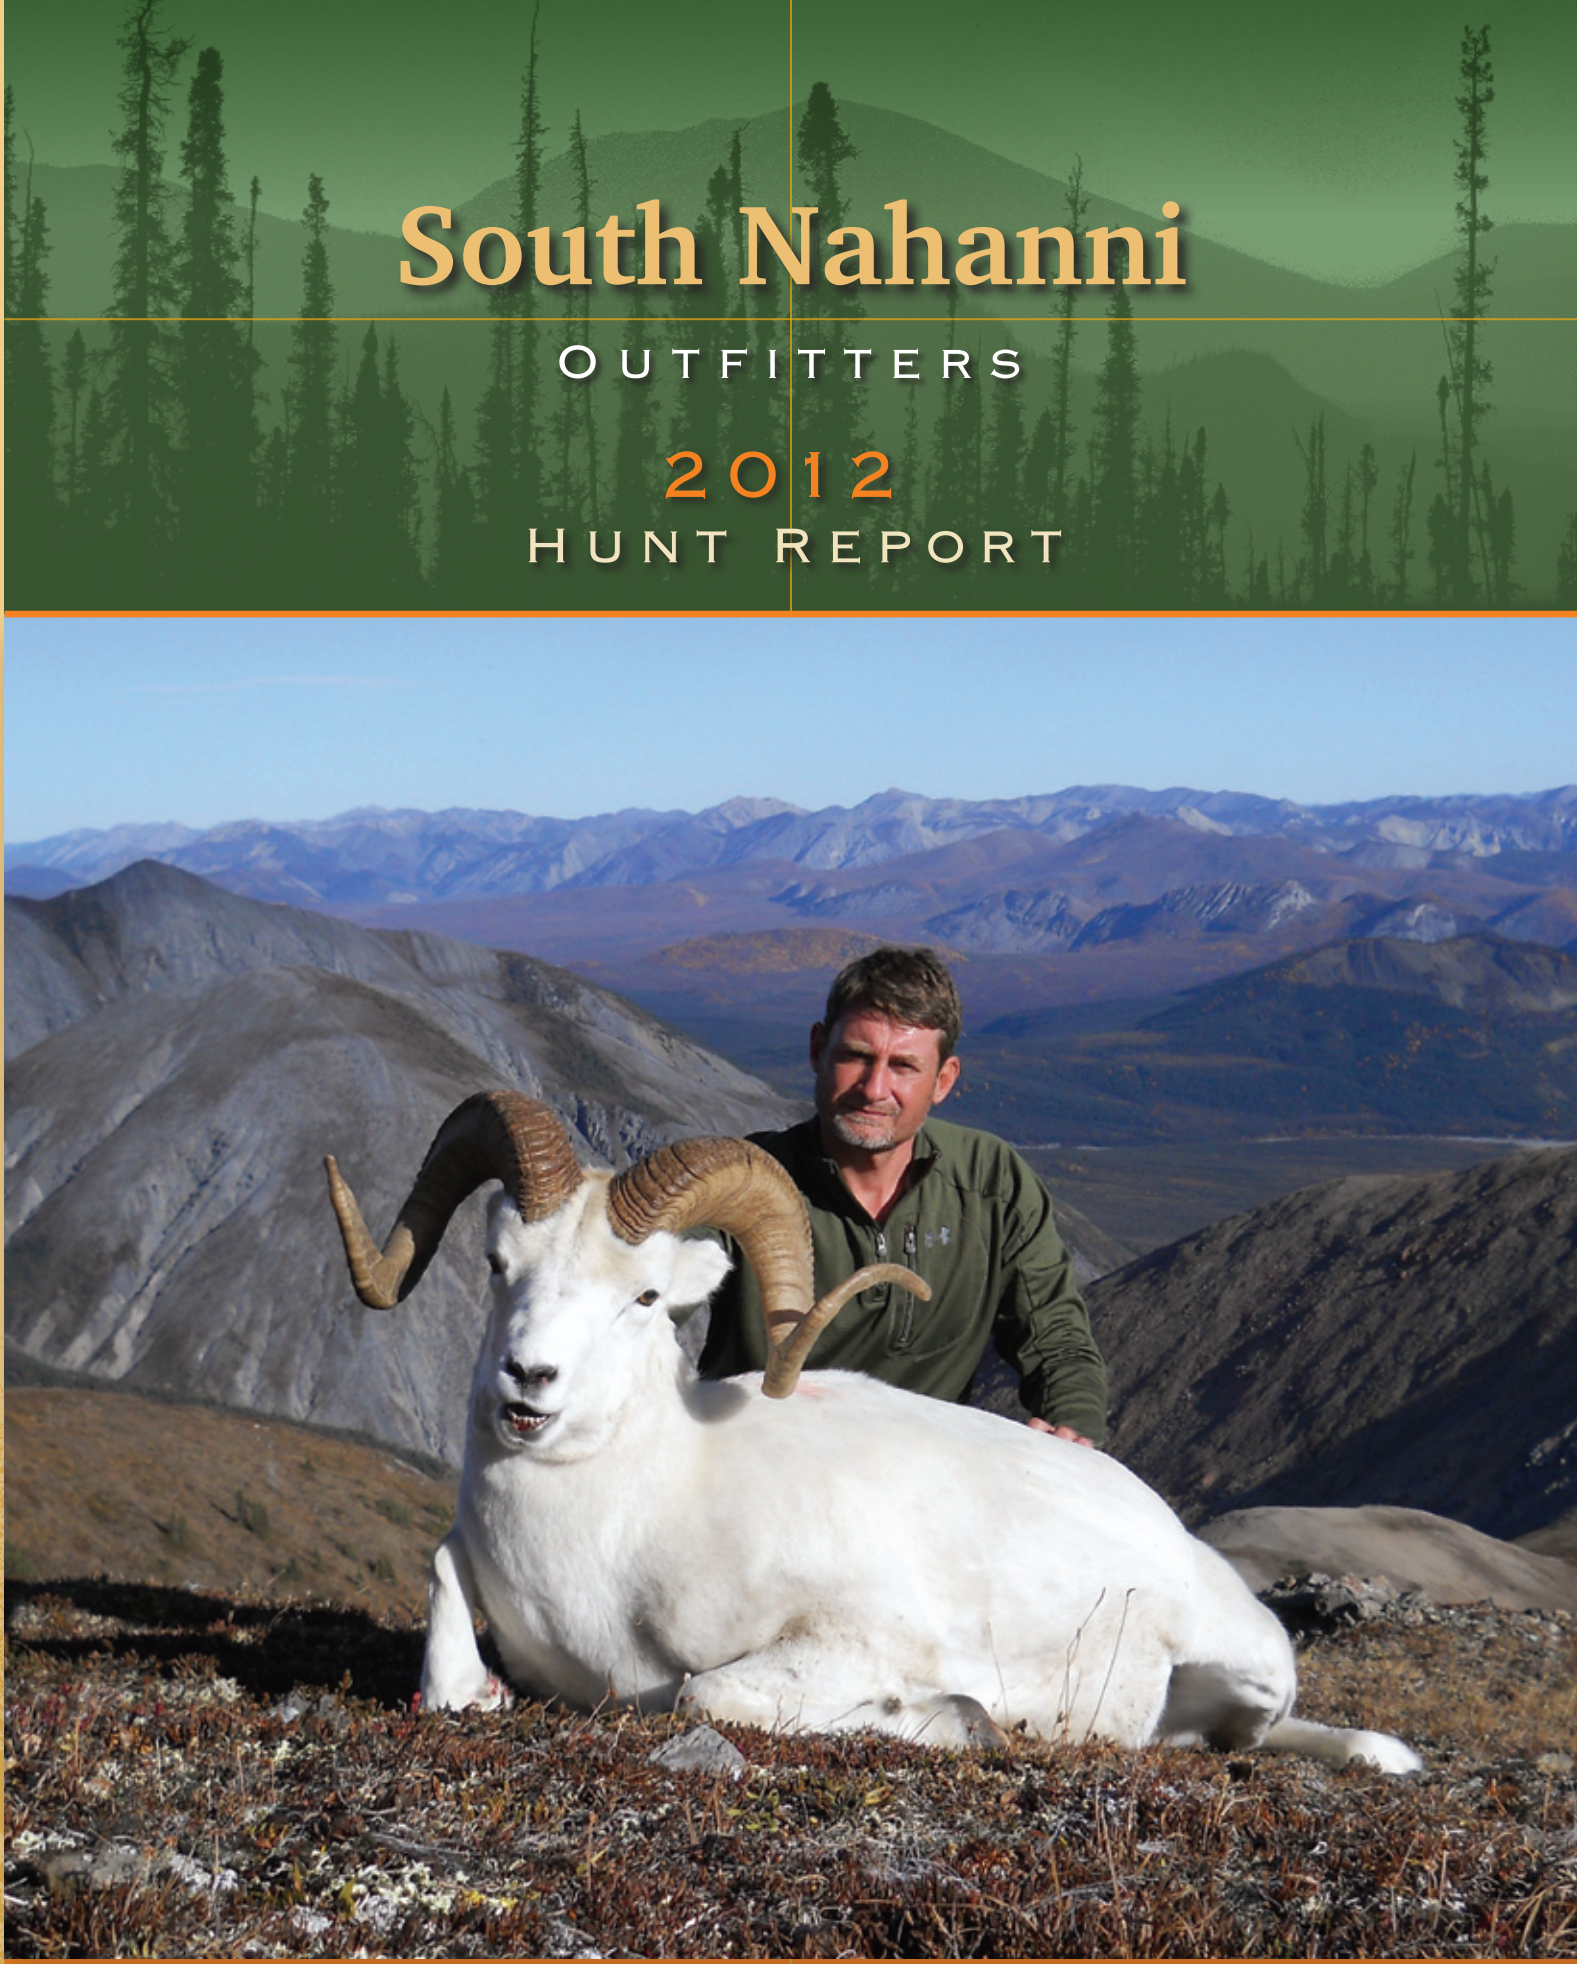

Your 'Home Sweet Home' in the mountain wilderness

OUR GUIDE GALLERY

Werner and Sunny Aschbacher
South Nahanni Outfitters Ltd.
 Box 31119, Whitehorse, Yukon
 Canada Y1A 5P7
 Phone/Fax: 1-867-399-3194
 Email: info@huntnahanni.com
 www.huntnahanni.com

South Nahanni

OUTFITTERS

2012
 HUNT REPORT

NORTHWEST TERRITORIES
 CANADA

PRINTED IN CANADA

2012 SEASON GALLERY

Thank you all – hunters, guides, pilots, cooks, guests – for another wonderful season! Good hunting to you!

Deer and Spring

A lot of hard work plus endurance tests on boots and gun finally paid off with an old ram for hunter Helga Hobisch and husband Stefan, Austria. (Guide Harald Rocca)

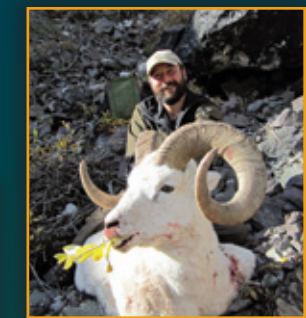

SNO repeat hunter Gregg Ritz, New Hampshire, filmed by cameraman Jeff Parker is now on a crossbow slam (on his last hunt with us he took sheep/caribou with the muzzleloader). After a caribou, the beautiful 14-year old ram was stalked for several days. (Guide Byron Gagne)

Amer Ghandour, Lebanon, gave his best, even though grizzlies were too plentiful in his hunting vicinity. (Guide Stacey Keeler)

Trygve (Trigger) Aasvestad and fiancée Nina Einem (both Norway) did a first day 'Dalldouble' with guide Chase Gallagher. Trygve couldn't pass up a book caribou (409 B&C) and took a 57 inch moose, while a lucky black bear made two escapes due to a rifle scope problem.

Albert Kirchbauer, Austria, and guide Byron G. had no trouble traversing mountain ranges, coming home with an amazing 38 inch, 12-year old ram after some wilderness fun.

SNO several repeats hunter Christian Schulmeyer, Germany, got lucky: He was laid up with severe back pain, listening for the helicopter, when the heavy 39 inch ram walked right past his tent camp. (Guide Byron Gagne)

Stefan Angerer, Yukon, was guided by his wife Ursula during a hardcore climbing adventure in the Ragged Range for the only 2012 goat!

While Rob was enjoying base camp, Michael Bey, Germany, went hard till day 8, got hit by rock fall, rained and snowed on, and was still just as successful with a heavy 13 inch based ram. (Guide Byron G.)

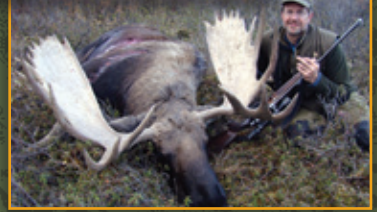

Rob Aston, Utah, took a 12-year old 38 inch twister ram on day one and finished off his hunt in style lounging in base camp. (Guide Harald)

SNO several repeats hunter Hellmuth Eichhorn, Germany, did a full 16 days on the hunt, enjoying the hard hunting, game encounters, adverse weather and spectacular trophies – another 38 inch twister –. (Guide Harald)

Marwan Kheirredine's hunt (Lebanon) started fast and furious with a nice ram and caribou on day one and a 57 inch moose on day three. (Guides Byron Gagne + Byron von Hagen)

Maurice Sehnaoui, Lebanon, made hunting look easy with a day one 39-inch twister, a day two moose and a day three caribou from base camp. Goat hunting became an unfulfilled challenge of the winds. (Guide Stacey)

Jairo Kayali Cuenca, Spain, used 8 hunting days for his nice trio of 60 inch moose, 37 inch twister sheep (COVER), and nice boo of his 14-day hunt. (Guide Byron v. H.)

Bow hunter Ken McBryde, Texas, was onto a number of bulls, moose and caribou alike, and took this nice boo from base camp. (Guide Hartwig Schupp)

Field preparation in caribou heaven – Guide Stacey Keeler

Filling the shed

Moose call: 'Come here, boy!' – Hunter Jürgen Steinemann

Arrival in the spike camp location – your hunt destination

Going for a helicopter ride

Albert Kirchbauer carrying his ram home

Aurora Borealis – northern lights show – above base camp

Hunter Helga Hobisch ready for the flight to her spike camp location

Feasting in base camp at the end of the hunt

Sheep steep terrain – hunter Brad Dunne

Guide Byron von Hagen ready for the day's work during moose hunt

September caribou

